TheTalent Show

Hi, my name is Yael, and I have an exciting story to share about my school's annual talent show in Tel Aviv. Every year, students from all grades participate, showcasing (מציגים לראווה) their unique skills. My best friend, Noam, and I have always been fans, sitting in the audience and cheering for our friends. This year, however, we decided to perform a duet. We practiced for weeks, choosing the perfect song and rehearsing our harmonies. Everything was going smoothly until one day, Noam started acting distant (מרוחק). Our practice sessions at the local community center became less frequent, and Noam seemed less enthusiastic (נלהב). I felt confused and a little hurt. Was Noam having second thoughts about our performance? Finally, I decided to talk to Noam about it. To my surprise, Noam took extra vocal lessons at the "Beit Dani" community center (מרכז קהילתי) to make our performance even better but was too shy to tell me. Noam thought I might feel offended or think less of our friendship. I was relieved and touched by Noam's dedication (הקדשה). On the day of the talent show, we performed our duet, and it was a hit! I appreciate (מעריכה) the extra effort Noam put in , and as a result our friendship grew stronger than ever. We learned the value of open communication (תקשורת) and how it could improve not just our performance but also our friendship.

Questions:

- 1. What do Yael and Noam enjoy doing together?
- 2. What is the annual talent show in Tel Aviv?
- 3. Why was Yael confused and hurt?
- 4. What did Noam do?
- 5. What could Yael have done differently? Offer some suggestions (הצעות).
- 6. In your opinion, is Noam a good friend?

Answers :

- 1. What do Yael and Noam enjoy doing together? Yael and Noam enjoy watching their school's annual talent show and cheering for their friends. This year, they also enjoyed practicing and performing a duet together.
- 2. What is the annual talent show in Tel Aviv? The annual talent show in Tel Aviv is an event where students from all grades participate to showcase their unique skills and talents.
- 3. Why was Yael confused and hurt? Yael was confused and hurt because Noam started acting distant, their practice sessions became less frequent, and Noam seemed less enthusiastic. Yael thought Noam might be having second thoughts about their performance.

4.What did Noam do? Noam took extra vocal lessons at the "Beit Dani" community center to improve their performance but was too shy to tell Yael.

5.What could Yael have done differently? Offer some suggestions. Yael could have communicated her feelings to Noam earlier instead of waiting until things became more concerning. She could have asked Noam directly if something was bothering them instead of assuming the worst. Offering support and encouragement to Noam during their practice might have made Noam feel more comfortable sharing their plans.

6. In your opinion, is Noam a good friend? Yes, Noam is a good friend. Noam's effort to take extra vocal lessons shows his dedication to their performance and his friendship with Yael.
